

BEDTIME STORY DAY!

Dear Parents and First Graders:

We are happy to announce that Bedtime Story Day will be held on Friday, January 24th. Students will be allowed to wear their pajamas, nightgowns, robes and slippers (please bring sneakers in backpacks for Running Club)! Children may bring their own favorite books labeled with their name, a flashlight and blanket. We will have many fun activities and will need parents and family members to help us.

_____ Yes, I am able to donate polyester fiber fill pillow stuffing (can be found at Wal-mart and local craft stores).

_____ Yes, I am able to donate pieces of fabric to be used to make pillows (each pillow requires two fabric circles about 14 inches in diameter).

_____ Yes, I am able to cut out fabric circles and return them to school by Wed., Jan. 22nd.

_____ Yes, I have a sewing machine that I can bring and would be able to sew pillows together on the 24th between 8:30 and 11:30 a.m. at school.

_____ Yes, I would be able to sew pillows together on the 24th between 8:30 and 11:30 a.m. at school, but I do not have a sewing machine.

_____ Yes, I'd like to be a guest reader (bring your favorite bedtime story to read).

Please list parent & family member volunteer names and phone numbers on the lines below or e-mail the information to your child's teacher.

We thank you for your continued help and support for our students.

Thank You,
First Grade Teachers
