

BEDTIME STORY DAY!

Dear Parents and First Graders:

We are happy to announce that Bedtime Story Day will be held on Friday, January 22nd. This is a day to celebrate your child's reading success. Students will be allowed to wear their pajamas, nightgowns, robes and slippers (please bring sneakers in backpacks for PE)! Children may bring their own favorite books labeled with their name, a flashlight and blanket. We will have many fun activities and will need parents and family members to help us.

_____ Yes, I am able to donate polyester fiber fill pillow stuffing (can be found at Wal-Mart and local craft stores).

_____ Yes, I am able to donate pieces of fabric to be used to make pillows (each pillow requires two fabric circles about 14 inches in diameter).

_____ Yes, I am able to cut out fabric circles and return them to school by Wed., Jan. 20th.

_____ Yes, I have a sewing machine that I can bring and would be able to sew pillows together on the 22nd between 9:00 and 12:00 at school.

_____ Yes, I would be able to sew pillows together on the 22nd between 9:00 and 12:00 at school, but I do not have a sewing machine.

_____ Yes, I would like to bring my favorite bedtime story to read as a guest reader. I can come at the following time on Friday: _____

Please list parent & family member volunteer names and phone numbers on the lines below or e-mail the information to your child's teacher.

Child's Name: _____

We thank you for your continued help and support for our scholars.

Thank You,
First Grade Teachers